Complaints and Appeals Procedure

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Chulmleigh Community College encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by • raising the concern or complaint s in person, by telephone or in writing to the head of centre..

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to Cressida Harrington - Examinations Officer. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within 2 school days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must

- A complaint should be submitted in writing by completing a Complaints and Appeals form

How a formal complaint is investigated

- The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within • two school weeks.

Appeals

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must • in writing by again completing a complaints and appeals form.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within • two school days.

The appeal will be referred to • Chair of Governors for consideration.

It will be the responsibility of • the Chair of Governors to inform the appellant of the final conclusion.
